MOLLIE STONE'S MARKETS TO ALLOW HEALTHCARE WORKERS AND FIRST RESPONDERS TO THE FRONT OF LINES WAITING TO ENTER STORES.

Bay Area, California – April 6, 2020 – All Mollie Stone's Markets are offering priority entrance to Healthcare Workers and First Responders.

All that Healthcare Workers and First Responders need to do is come to the front of the line to enter our stores and introduce themselves to a staff member and show ID.

We thank our customers for their patience regarding these procedures. We encourage all of our customers to join us in supporting Healthcare Workers and First Responders in this crisis.

Mollie Stone's Markets have already implemented safety measures to limit the number of people in our stores at any one time. We have also asked our customers to social distance while they wait in line to enter stores and to checkout. These safety measures have created longer lines and wait times for everyone. Our goal with this new policy is to make life easier for our overworked Healthcare Workers and First Responders.

“As our community continues to cope and deal with the impact of the coronavirus COVID-19, we want to reassure you that we are here to serve you.” said Mike Stone, Owner. “So much has changed in our world, but everyone at Mollie Stone's Markets have remained the same – committed to providing you with nourishing food with superior customer service. We recognize these are unprecedented times and remain committed to doing our best for you, keeping you informed as things change. We appreciate your patronage and are grateful to serve you.”
